

Youth Drowns In Rock Quarry

CEDAR VALLEY, IA. (AP)
—Charles Bombei 18, of Iowa City drowned Monday while attempting to swim 50 yards across a rock quarry near here.

Cedar County sheriff's authorities said the youth, the son of Charles Bombei of Sigourney, reportedly was a non-swimmer.

Scuba divers abandoned a search for the body after two hours. They said they will resume their search this morning.
