

PATROLMAN, 28, DROWNS IN ROCK QUARRY

Thomas A. Mack, 28, a patrolman in Warrenville, DuPage county, drowned early yesterday in an abandoned rock quarry in the Blackwell Forest preserve.

Police reported that Mack and four friends went swimming at 3:30 a. m. after a party. They said Mack went under while trying to swim across the 500-foot wide quarry, located at Winfield and Butterfeild roads in Winfield township.

Mack lived at ONO70 Stanley st., Winfield. He is survived by his widow, Diane; and two sons, Anthony, 9, and Bryan, 6.

1968 Jul Thomas Mack drowns at quarry
IL

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 11, 2024