

DROWNS IN QUARRY

Independence, Kas., Boy Slides Into a Pit

Independence, Kas. (AP)—An 11-year-old boy was drowned in an abandoned rock quarry pit southeast of Independence, Kas., yesterday afternoon.

Sheriff Bill Lessman identified the boy as Calvin Dale Reed of Independence. The sheriff said the body was recovered from about 10 feet of water.

He said the boy slid off a rocky ledge into the water, while playing with several other boys at the quarry.

The Manned Spacecraft Center in Texas covers 1,620 acres near Houston.
