

Miner Killed Instantly By Fall Of Slate

Joe E. Coleman Is Accident Victim

Joe E. Coleman, 41, employed as a joy helper in Republic Steel Company mine at Road Creek, was killed instantly last Friday morning when caught beneath a slate fall.

A life-long resident of Regina, he was a son of Ol Coleman and the late Ida (Adkins) Coleman. He was a member of U. M. W. A. local union 8045.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hazel (Adkins) Coleman; three sons, Harold, Howard, and Leonard Coleman; and two daughters, Irene and Linda Coleman, all of Regina; seven brothers, Frank, Ted, James, George, and Victory Coleman, Regina, Ernest Coleman, Seaman, O., and Charley Coleman, Broadbottom; and a sister, Mrs. Edith Ratliff, Regina.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Monday morning from the home. Burial was in the Johnson cemetery at Regina.