

MINE INJURIES FATAL TO MAN

Harry Shoup, Formerly of Canonsburg, Crushed This
Morning at Republic Steel
Mine

Harry Shoup, 39, of Rural Ridge, former Canonsburg resident, was fatally injured this morning when he was caught between two railroad cars while at work at Republic Steel Mine, Russelton. The accident occurred at 3 a. m. and he died shortly afterwards while enroute to the Allegheny Valley Hospital, Tarentum.

A war veteran, Shoup was born in Morgan on May 8, 1909 and had made his home in this locality before moving to Rural Ridge.

He is survived by his wife, Marie, one daughter, Alana Rose; two stepsons, Thomas Powers and James Francis Powers; his father, Charles Shoup, of Springdale; his mother, Mrs. Hannah Brendel, of Canonsburg; two brothers, Charles, of Russelton and Thomas, of Kurtisville.

Friends will be received at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Clark, Weavertown, where services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. in charge of Rev. H. Ross Hume, of the Canonsburg U. P. Church. Interment will be in Oak Spring Cemetery. Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Yoney Funeral Home.
