

Miner Fatally Crushed

A 32-year-old Jefferson Center man was fatally crushed between mine cars last night. Deputy coroners reported Howard Parker died of shock a short time later in Allegheny Valley Hospital at Tarentum, following left hip and pelvis fractures received in the accident at the Republic Steel Corp. mine at Russelton.

1951 08 13 Russelton haulage fatal

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Aug 29, 2024