

California Miner Is Fatally Injured

A 22-year-old California miner was fatally injured in a fall of slate Tuesday evening in the Clyde Mine No. 1, Fredericktown.

Charles (Chuckie) Richard Brown, 22, of 995 Green Street, California, died instantly at 6:25 p. m. from his injuries in the Republic Steel Corp. mine.

He was employed as a snapper at the Clyde Mine.

1952 01 08 Clyde mine roof fall

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Aug 26, 2024