

Sayre man dies of injuries from mine rock fall

A 59-year-old Republic Steel electrician, injured when a rock fell on him in a mine Monday, died yesterday in Carraway Methodist Hospital.

B. Frank Hobbs was trapped for several minutes when the rock crashed down on him while he was working in Republic's Sayre mine.

Hobbs lived in Sayre.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Good Hope Baptist Church, with the Rev. Thedford Lively, the Rev. George Doss and the Rev. Grady Mitchell conducting. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Surviving are his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Kathryn Popadak of Compton, Calif., and Mrs. Jean Eadie of Sayre; a son, B. Frank Hobbs Jr.; a brother, Truman Hobbs of Dora; five sisters, Mrs. D. C. Chambers of Bremen, Ga., Mrs. D. E. Blackman of Albertville, Mrs. W. L. Davenport of Atlanta, Mrs. A. R. Potridge of Ohio and Mrs. Wesley Haney of Buchanan, Ga.

1956 Frank Hobbs killed in Sayre mine 12 17

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Sat, Dec 30, 2023