

FIVE KILLED BY AN AVALANCHE,

Conundrum Gulch, Colorado, the Scene of the Slide.

DENVER, March 18.—A Leadville dispatch says: “News has been received of a disastrous snow slide at Carey, a small camp in Conundrum Gulch, seventy miles north of here, in which five miners were killed.

“Their names are:

“J. F. Tate.

“Millard Thorn.

“S. E. Steel.

“George Morris.

“J. P. Steel.

“The avalanche was several hundred feet wide and fifty feet deep.”

1884 Conundrum Gulch Avalanche NEWS

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Mar 10, 2025