

TABLE IV.—List of Fatal Accidents occurring in and about the mines of the Eighth Anthracite District for the year ending December 31, 1891.

Date of accident.	NAME OF PERSON INJURED.	Age.	Married or single.	Number of orphans.	Name of Colliery.	Location—Schuylkill County.	Nature and Cause of Accident in Brief.
Feb. 2.	John Keek,	50	M.	. . .	Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company No. 10.	Coaldale,	A piece of gangway timber rolled on him whilst engaged in making timbers on the surface, fatally injuring him.
17.	William Gallagher	20	S.	. . .	Goodspring,	Goodspring,	Fatally injured by being crushed between the bumpers of railroad cars on the surface.
26.	Michael Renolds,	Glendower,	Taylorville,	Killed by a fall of top coal in a breast in which he was working.
25.	Patrick McIntire,	M.	. . .	Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company No. 11.	Coaldale,	Fatally injured by being burned by the explosion of a keg of powder which he was using.
Mar. 14.	William Southern,	M.	. . .	Morea,	Morea,	Died from injuries received from a fall of coal.
Apr. 11.	William Greenaway,	22	S.	. . .	Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company No. 10.	Coaldale,	Died from injuries received from the breaking of the hoisting rope. He went into the cage-pit whilst the cage was being hoisted and was injured by the flying missiles from the wreck.
11.	James Keathing,	37	M.	1	Oak Hill,	Minersville,	Killed by a fall of top coal.
May 1.	Peter Klouskie,	S.	. . .	Morea,	Died from injuries received by being struck by a mine car at the bottom of the slope.
8.	James Haggerty,	S.	. . .	Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company No. 10 colliery.	Fatally injured by an explosion of gas, which caused the death of four persons.
8.	Fred Newroth,	S.	. . .
8.	William Backhouse,	S.	. . .
8.	David Reese,	S.	. . .
June 8.	Edward Hammer,	S.	. . .	Glendower,	Killed whilst he was in the act of starting a battery, by being caught by a rush of coal.
Aug. 8.	John Carbois,	S.	. . .	York Farm,	Died from the effects of having been burned by an explosion of gas.
20.	John Leinger,	16	East Franklin,	Died; supposed to have been kicked by a mule. The boy walked home as usual, apparently but slightly injured, but he died a few days after.
20.	Michael O'Neill,	18	S.	. . .	Otto,	Head crushed between face of tunnel and a mine car.
Oct. 31.	John Watkins,	37	M.	. . .	Morea,	Fatally injured by being crushed between car and timber.
2.	Harry Rosewame,	37	M.	5	York Farm,	Pottsville,	Killed by a piece of rock striking him whilst he was passing along the tunnel; another workman was in the act of pulling the rock down. This workman, however, warned Rosewame to keep back, which he refused to do, and in consequence he lost his life.

TABLE IV—Continued.

Date of accident.	NAME OF PERSON INJURED.	Age.	Married or single.	Number of orphans.	Name of Colliery.	Location.	Nature and Cause of Accident in Brief.
Oct. 3.	John Lawler,	50	M.	3	Richardson,	Glencarbon,	These seven unfortunate men lost their lives by being suffocated by gas; by reason of a pillar giving way in a breast, the coal, in consequence of the breast and coal chute being empty, rushed into the gangway, knocking out several sets of timber, closing the only available outlet for the unfortunate victims' escape.
3.	Winfield Mack,	35	M.	3
3.	Joseph Shields,	23	M.	3
3.	John Salmon,	19	M.	4
3.	Thomas Clancy,	65	M.	4
3.	Michael Welsh,	54	M.	4
3.	John Pursell,	41	M.	4
Nov. 5.	James Rogers,	45	M.	3	New Boston,	New Boston,	Died from the effects of being burned by an explosion of gas.
Dec. 15.	James Mulhall,	—	—	—	Thomaston,	Thomaston,	Killed by a fall of coal in the breast in which he was working.
24.	Thomas James,	49	M.	7	Otto,	Branchdale,	Caught between a piece of timber and a piece of rock whilst in the act of starting a battery at the bottom of the breast in which he was workin .