

At the Roslyn Mine.

ROSLYN, Wash., May 12.—The rescuing party continued its search all last night. At 2:30 this morning they recovered five more bodies, making in all nineteen taken from the mines. Those recovered this morning are: Sidney Wright, Herman Duster, John Hodgson, George Brooks, and Frank Hannah. All of the remaining bodies have been located and will be rescued today. Mayor Miller is in receipt of telegrams from several outside points suggesting that steps be taken to raise a subscription for relief of the families of the dead miners.

1892 Roslyn Mine explosion NEWS

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
May 28, 2025