

Officials Enter a Burning Mine.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., November 13.—A number of mine officials entered the water level tunnel of the burning Luke Fidler Mine to-day and found it full of foul gases. No trace of the bodies of the four men who were imprisoned there thirty-four days ago was found. The lower workings are filled with water, and the fire is still burning in the upper chambers of the mine.

1894 Luke Fidler Mine fire NEWS7

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Sep 21, 2025