

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/322909165/>

On the 20th 29 miners lost their lives in Entry 10 of the Nelson mine, three miles from Dayton, Tenn., by an explosion of mine damp. They were two miles from the entrance to the mine, and the passage behind them being closed by the fallen debris, shut off the fresh air and rendered their fate inevitable.

1895 Nelson Mine Explosion NEWS1

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Apr 15, 2025