
One Miner Rescued.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 12.—The two miners—Charles Dietzel and August Brenner—who spent 40 hours in a breast in the Richardson colliery have been taken out, the former alive. Brenner had evidently been crushed to death by the fall of coal.

The Daily News
January 12, 1895