

MINERS ENTOMBED.

Fifty-one Caught in a Cave-In and All Rescued.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 5.—A serious cave-in occurred this morning at the Nay Aug mine, near Dunmore. Fifty-one men were entombed.

The rescuing party, after nearly three hours' hard work, succeeded in digging into the chamber in which the men were entombed. All were rescued, not one being seriously injured.
