

ONCE IN A WHILE
some newspapers have a "tabloid" and advertise.
AT SOME TIME OR OTHER
advertisements appear in other weekly or other papers.
ALL THE TIME ADVERTISING
NEWS COLUMNISTS HAVE A FEELING OF THE PROBABILITY OF THE FUTURE OF THE FUTURE IN THE HANDS OF THE FUTURE.

BUFFALO EVENING NEWS.

5 O'CLOCK LATEST!

VOL. XLVI—NO. 70.

BUFFALO, N. Y., WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1903.

PRICE ONE CENT.

AWFUL SCENES AT HANNA MINE.

SURVIVORS FIGHT RESCUERS.

MRS. BENDER BREAKS DOWN AND ADMITS SHE SAW BOGGIANO.

Murdered Man's Wife Tells District Attorney Her Husband's Slayer Fled Through the Hall After Murder.

Declares She Didn't Talk With Him and Didn't Know He Premeditated Crime—Her Photographs Found in His Room by the Police.

MOTION TO CONFIRM SALE KENILWORTH.

Receiver of Property Ready to Proceed to Close Transfer.

Fire Raging in Shaft of Union Pacific Mine Cuts Off All Chances of Escape for the Miners Entombed Far Below the Surface.

EMPLOYERS ARE MAKING WAR ON LABOR DELEGATES

Promise to Prove Wholesale Corruption as a Lesson to Unions.

ARBITRATION IS ACCEPTED.

Workingmen's Associations Unanimously Ratify Fuller's Plan for Peace.

MAYOR SIGNS THE RESOLUTION FOR WATER EXPERTS.

Now for a Thorough Scientific Examination of the City's Water Supply.

DOESN'T ADVISE PEOPLE TO STOP BOILING WATER.

RUSSIA REFUSES ALL PETITIONS.

Makes No Explanation of Kishineff Affair—Will Receive No Communication Concerning Internal Affairs.

1903 Hanna Mine Explosion NEWS