

TEN MINERS ENTOMBED.

Four Escape After Explosion— Others Thought Dead.

Charlestown, W. Va., April 20.—Ten miners were imprisoned in the Cabin Creek mine, at Kayford, to-night, in a mine explosion. Four of the number managed to reach the surface terribly injured.

The six others are believed to be dead.

The catastrophe is said to have been caused by a powder explosion, which set fire to the tipple and imprisoned the miners.
