

Six Miners Dead in West Virginia Shaft.

Charleston, W. Va., April 21.—Ten miners were imprisoned in the Cabin Creek mine at Kayford last night in a mine explosion, four of the number managed to reach the surface terribly injured. The other six are thought to be dead.

The catastrophe is said to have been caused by a powder explosion, which set fire to the tibble and imprisoned the miners.