

MINERS BODIES NOT RESCUED

Six Who Were Entombed In the Clyde Mine Cannot Be Reached.

FREDERICKTOWN, Pa., Oct. 14.— The six miners entombed in the Clyde mine yesterday as a result of a fire damp explosion have not yet been rescued. Parties worked in short shifts all night, but the dense smoke, despite the work of the fans, made progress slow. The entombed men are 100 feet from the pit mouth and hopes of reaching them alive are not entertained.
