

23 BODIES FOUND

Believed No More Victims of Disaster Are in Mine.

ELKINS, W. VA., Feb. 8.—(Spi.) Twenty-three men lost their lives in the Thomas mine, No. 25, last Monday. Unfrequented parts of the mine have been explored, and it is said no more bodies will be found. The mine owners refuse to give out a statement as to what caused the disaster, leaving the report to be made by the mine inspector. Operations will be resumed in the mine in a few days.

1907 Thomas No 25 Mine explosion NEWS

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Aug 1, 2025