

FOURTEEN MINERS DIE

AS RESULT OF EXPLOSION IN
JUMBO MINE NEAR McALESTER,
OKLAHOMA, AT A LATE HOUR
LAST NIGHT.

(Herald Special.)

McAlester, Okla., Nov. 28.—Fourteen miners, all Americans, were killed in an explosion late last night in the Jumbo asphalt mine of the Choctaw Asphalt company, located at Jumbo, fourteen miles northwest of Antlers, according to a message received today by R. W. Church, state mine inspector. The cause of the explosion is unknown here at this time. Church, with W. K. Patterson, district mine inspector, left for the scene at once. The Jumbo mine is the largest in this section.

1910 Jumbo Mine explosion NEWS

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
May 18, 2025