

MINER BURIED 12 HOURS; WAS RESCUED UNHURT

Frank Oronosky, of Frackville, employed at the Stanton colliery at Mahanoy Plane, was buried in his breast early yesterday morning by a rush of coal. He was rescued at six o'clock last night. He was badly scared, but was uninjured.

1913 Frank Oronosky rescued from rush of coal after 12 hrs

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Sun, Jan 9, 2022