

Miner Has Close Call

Lester Jennings, miner, was saved from death when a large rock under which he was working in the Barnes No. 2 mine at Wills Creek, fell and pinned him to the ground this morning. The rock rested upon piles of waste when it came down and Jennings is alive, thankful to have escaped with bruises, a dislocated shoulder and twisted knee.

1913 Lester Jennings rescued from Barnes No 2 mine

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Mon, Feb 15, 2021