

CORONER'S VERDICT ON MINE EXPLOSION

Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 2 — That the eighteen miners killed in the Orenda mine of the Merchants Coal company, at Boswell, Tuesday, met death as a result of an explosion, cause unknown, was the verdict of a coroner's jury there tonight. The jury recommended that the use of motors in the gaseous portions of the mine be discontinued. The funerals of sixteen of the victims were held at Boswell today.
