
MINER RESCUED.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 24 — The sixteenth miner, closed in by an explosion of gas at the Lytle colliery late yesterday, was rescued during the night, the other fifteen having been taken out safely earlier in the evening. All will recover. The fire, which was started by the explosion, is well under control and the officials say it will be speedily extinguished.

1916 Sixteen miners rescued from the Lytle colliery

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Mon, Feb 15, 2021