

Explosion at Havaco.

Explosion early Saturday morning in Havaco mine of the New River Pocahontas consolidated coal company at Havaco, killed two, and the rescue party was overcome by after damp, and leaking gas masks, caused death of two of the rescue party.

The dead are: John Farmer, mine foreman; Samuel Jones, pumper; Fred Paulick and Martin Harrock, miners. This is a shaft men and rescue parties are at work, but have been unable to reach the place where the explosion occurred. The cause of the explosion is unknown. It is understood here that chief mining inspector left for Bluefield today.

1918 Havaco Mine explosion NEWS

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Jan 15, 2025