

MINER RESCUED AFTER BEING LOST TWO DAYS

Benton, Ill.—Tony Dooering, a miner, has been rescued from the mine of the Benton Coal Co., after having been lost two days and nights, during which he had neither food nor drink. He is said to have started for the main shaft and become lost, wandering around in abandoned parts of the mine. Several hundred men searched the mine before he was found.

1918 Lost Benton Coal Co miner found after 2 days

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Mon, Jan 11, 2021