

LOST IN COAL MINE

Three Men Wander For Five Hours
Without Light,

Morgantown, W. Va., Aug. 15.—Lost in an abandoned coal mine, without lights, and prisoners for five hours, Walter Mayfield, Harley Warman and J. C. Fortney, prominent residents of this city, were saved by a searching party after they had given up hope of rescue. The men went into the mine to in-

The men went into the mine to investigate it when their lamp went out and for five hours they wandered about vainly in an effort to find their way out.

1918 Three men lost in mine for five hours

Clipped By:

usmra_rob Sat, Feb 6, 2021