

Miners Overcome.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 3.—Forty men were overcome by black-damp in the Nottingham mine of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Co., at Plymouth today. All were brought to the surface. There are no fatalities, but the condition of most of the men is serious.

1919 Forty men rescued from blackdamp in Nottingham mine

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Sun, May 2, 2021