

Entombed Miners Rescued
HAZELTON, Pa., Jan. 16.—Edward Moore, Hazelton Heights, and Jere Donovan, Jeanesville were rescued during the night in the Jeanesville mines of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, where they were entombed for several hours by a fall of coal. Moore was taken to the State Hospital suffering from injuries to his back, but Donovan escaped unhurt.

1920 Jeanesville miners rescued after several hours

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Mon, Jan 11, 2021