

DIES OF INJURIES.
Sergent, Ky., Dec. 13.—Roosevelt Jackson, aged 17 years, of Russell County, Va., was so severely injured in a mine accident on Lott's Creek in the coal fields several miles from here that he died within a few hours without regaining consciousness. He is said to have parents in the Virginia county. Young Jackson came to the coal fields of Virginia several years ago.

1920 Roosevelt Jackson age 17 killed in mine

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Thu, Aug 31, 2023

HAZARD: Roosevelt Jackson, 17, died from injuries received when his foot slipped in boarding a motor train in Lott's Creek mines and he fell between cars.

1920 Roosevelt Jackson age 17 killed in mine

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Thu, Aug 31, 2023