

MINER BURIED 6 HOURS; DIRECTS HIS RESCUERS

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 19.—Caught in a rush of rock and coal when a cave-in occurred in the mine workings of the Gibbons Coal Company in South Scranton today, Mathew Schrader was held prisoner for over six hours before being liberated. Schrader directed the work of rescue telling his comrades where to dig. He was removed to a hospital where it is said he is not seriously injured.

1921 Mathew Schrader trapped in mine 6 hours

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Mon, Jan 25, 2021