

MINERS' BODIES RECOVERED

Oak Creek, Colo., Feb. 13.—The bodies of three of the five men trapped by an explosion in the number two mine of the Moffat Coal company Saturday afternoon were recovered today. C. Testas and Henry Warner, shot firers in the mine, are believed to be dead. Rescuers continued working tonight in an effort to penetrate the wall of earth and coal which cut off their escape.

1921 Moffat Coal mine explosion NEWS2

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Aug 29, 2025