

MEN TRAPPED IN PENNSYLVANIA MINE RESCUED

Nesquehoning, Pa., March 22.—
Thirteen miners entombed yesterday behind a fall of rock and earth in the No. 1 drift of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company were rescued shortly before 1 o'clock this morning.
They were entombed here late yesterday when sixty feet of the gangway workings caved in.

1923 Thirteen miners rescued from Lehigh Coal and Navigation cavein

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Tue, May 4, 2021