

Miner Buried 11 Hours By Fall of Rock Rescued

WILKES-BARRE, March 14. — Entombed for eleven hours by a fall of rock in the same mine where three men were killed Tuesday, Daniel Wallace, Warrior Run, was rescued early today, little the worse, physically, for his harrowing experience.

Rescue squads, working in relays, took out hundreds of cars of rock and coal to reach Wallace. While his injuries are minor, he is suffering greatly from shock.

1924 Daniel Wallace rescued after 11 hours

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Mon, Jan 25, 2021