

GASSED MINER IS RESCUED FROM SHAFT

TONOPAHA (Nev.), May 22.—Overcome by gas in the Rogers shaft, two miles from the Gipsy Queen Mine, Patrick Sarsfield was rescued after considerable difficulty and his life saved.

Sarsfield was stricken down by gas from old workings in the bottom of the forty-five foot shaft.

After striving to extricate him, his two companions secured help

1926 Patrick Sarsfield rescued after overcome by mine gas

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Wed, Jan 5, 2022