

Mine Gas Kills One And Overcomes Six

NEWTON, N. J., Aug. 1.—One man is dead and two others are in a serious condition in Franklin Hospital to-day as a result of having been overcome by gas yesterday in the lower levels of the New Jersey Zinc Company mines in Franklin. The dead man was Harry Sheldon, of Franklin township. The men in the hospital are Mike Kiski, mine foreman, and a laborer who attempted to rescue Sheldon. Four other workmen were overcome during the rescue work but were not taken to the hospital.

1927 Miners rescued from New Jersey Zinc mine

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Sat, Nov 6, 2021