

Fear Six Men Dead Within Princess Mine

Bluefield, W. Va., Dec. 1—(AP)—
Mine rescue crews today were endeavoring to reach six men entombed by an explosion last night in the Princess-Pocahontas Coal company mine on Spice creek, near Roderfield. The crews were bratticing off bad air and gas as they move slowly forward.

Little hope of finding the men alive remained after the rescue workers had toiled throughout the night.

1928 Princess Poca Mine explosion NEWS

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Nov 29, 2025