

RESCUE FIVE MEN TRAPPED IN MINE

Work Five Hours to Save Them
From Cave-in Trap—Fifty
Dig Through Debris.

Trapped in a mine breast after thirty feet of gangway caved in at the No. 4 colliery of the Jeddo-Highland Coal Company, five miners were rescued uninjured after an entombment of over four hours.

The men are: Peter Brobowski, George Clarco and Frank Mussolino, of Hazleton; Fred Wald and Nicholas Parenti, of Freeland.

A rescue squad of fifty men worked for more than an hour before establishing communication with the men.

1934 Five miners rescued from Jeddo Highland No 4 colliery cavein

