

TRAPPED IN MINE FOR SEVEN HOURS

Joseph Thomas, of Oneida, near Hazleton, is recovering at the Hazleton state hospital from severe shock and injuries suffered when he was buried seven hours beneath a fall of coal and rock at the Wolfe colliery, of the Wolfe Coal company, Oneida, where he was employed as a miner.

1934 Joseph Thomas rescued from Wolfe Colliery after 7 hrs

Clipped By
usmra_ro
Tue, Feb 8, 2022