

MINER, TRAPPED BY FALL, SUFFERS HEAD INJURIES

Trapped by a fall of rock at the St. Clair Coal Co. operation, where he is employed, Franklin Zondorhin, 49, of West Market Street, St. Clair, was admitted to the Pottsville Hospital late last night for treatment of his injuries. His face and head were lacerated severely in the mishap and numerous sutures were necessary to close the wounds. Dr. Weaver of St. Clair treated the injuries at the hospital.

1935 Franklin Zondorhin trapped by fall of coal

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Wed, Mar 17, 2021