

Missouri Lad, 10, Rescued From 90-Foot Mine Shaft After School Fight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS.

DUENWEL, MO., November 9 (Tuesday).—Joe Snyder, 10 was rescued last night from an abandoned mine shaft, 90 feet deep, two hours after he had fallen into the shaft while fleeing to his home following a fist fight with two schoolmates. The boy, examination at a hospital showed, suffered a broken back and skull fractures. His condition was described as critical.

1937 Ten year old Joe Snyder was rescued 2 hrs after fall into abandoned mine

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Thu, Jul 22, 2021