

FIVE MINERS SAVED
SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 18.—(UP)
—Five miners trapped deep in an anthracite mine when a coal car they were riding hurtled out of control down a steep slope and crashed through timbers supporting the Tunnerl roof, were rescued alive and unharmed tonight.

1938 Five anthracite miners tossed from coal car rescued

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Fri, Nov 26, 2021