

RESCUED FROM FALL IN PRIMROSE MINE

Anthony Epscavage Minersville, was rescued from a fall of rock and coal which struck him at the Primrose Coal Co., Monday evening.

He was released by fellow workers and was removed to the Warne Hospital in the Community Ambulance.

He underwent an operation at the hospital, Tuesday morning for a dislocated right shoulder and left ankle, and his condition is reported as being fairly good.

1940 Anthony Epscavage rescued by coworkers in Primrose mine

