

BOOTLEG MINER HURT

Charles Griscavage, 27, Kulpmont, is a patient at Shamokin State Hospital, suffering a probable fracture of the skull and other injuries sustained when caught under a fall of top rock in a bootleg mine hole Wednesday afternoon. He was partly buried, but fellow miners quickly rescued him.

1940 Charles Griscavage rescued after fall of top rock in bootleg mine

