

MINER SERIOUSLY INJURED BY FALL

Joseph Nolan, 47, of Buck Mountain, near Mahanoy City, is in a serious condition in Ashland Hospital with head, back and internal injuries suffered yesterday under a fall in a bootleg mine operation near his home. Nolan was engaged in dressing down shattered coal in the working place when the top broke, almost completely burying the miner. He was rescued by fellow workers and taken at once to the hospital.

Clipped By:

DemiNick
Fri, Jan 26, 2018