

Miner Rescued After Explosion and Fire

WALKER MINE, Calif. —(U.P.)— Ross Nicely, 45-year-old miner, was rescued yesterday from the burning Walker mine after two other men were brought to safety earlier.

Nicely emerged from the mine at 1 p.m. with a rescue crew consisting of seven Grass Valley miners and three company men. The crew was the second to go into the shafts after the explosion and fire was discovered at 5:30 a.m.

1940 Ross Nicely and 2 others rescued from California mine

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Wed, Mar 24, 2021