

Miner Is Rescued From Under Fall

Michael Yuskoski, 43, of 339 north Second street, Frackville, was rushed to Ashland State Hospital yesterday, after fellow workmen rescued him from under a fall of coal at the Atkins Coal Company.

Hospital attaches said Yuskoski, who was almost suffocated, has no pain and there appears to be no fractures, although a complete diagnosis has not been made.

1941 Michael Yuskoski rescued from fall at Atkins Coal Co mine

Clipped
usr
Sat, Jan