

BOOTLEG MINER RESCUED BUT DIES IN HOSPITAL

Trapped for eight hours yesterday in his coal hole near the highway between Mahanoy City and Delano, Peter Gerasinovich, 43, of 207 West Balliet street, Frackville, was rescued at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon but died five hours later at the Locust Mountain Hospital. He suffered internal injuries when struck by part of the fall.

Born in Jugoslavia, he came to this country in 1924. He was a member of St. Michael's Ukranian Greek Catholic Church of Frackville.

He leaves his widow, Anna; five children, Catherine, Anna, Stephen, Marie and Vilma, all at home; three brothers, Stephen, Lebanon, and Samuel, Bethlehem, and another in Europe; his father and a sister, also in Europe.

Gulick will announce funeral arrangements.

Obituary for Peter Gerasinovich (Aged 43)

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Wed, Mar 24, 2021