

Four Mine Workers Killed In Explosion

EBENSBURG, Pa., March 13 (INS)—Four men were killed Thursday in an explosion at the Revloc No. 1 mine of the Monroe Coal company near Ebensburg, according to company officials.

The blast, presumed by mine inspectors to have been of gas, claimed the lives of Clifford Davis, 40, Ebensburg; Winfield Scanlan, 52, Gallitzin; James M. Brady, 32, Altoona and James A. Barger, Jr., 23, Nanty Glo. All were married.